"The more we let God take us over, the more truly ourselves we become — because He made us. He invented us... It is when I turn to Christ, when I give up myself to His personality, that I first begin to have a real personality of my own."

Rooted In Christ

As autumn leaves begin to fall
And seasons shift around us all,
One truth remains, forever true:
My worth and life are found in You.

I am not defined by fear or shame,
My past no longer bears my name.
I am forgiven, loved, and known,
A child of God, and not alone.

When life feels uncertain, I will stand
Secure within my Savior's hand.
For circumstances may change each day,
But who I am in Christ will stay.

So as the leaves fall to the ground,
May I in Christ stay firmly bound—
Rooted in grace, redeemed and free,
Becoming who He's called me to be.

What is a Christian's favorite fall activity?

LEAFING IT ALL IN GOD'S HANDS!

The Fall Forecast 🍂

A man was looking out the window on a beautiful October morning.
The leaves were changing colors, the air was cool, and everything looked peaceful.
His wife asked, “What are you thinking about?”
He smiled and said, “I'm just admiring God's handiwork.”
She smiled. “That's sweet.”
He paused.
“Although I'm pretty sure He could have left the part out where we have to rake it all up.”
